JULY IS LITERACY MONTH

OC Fair – School Supplies & Reading by Nine

On Wednesday, August 5, 2009, if you take one school item with a minimum value of $5 you gain free entrance into the OC Fair. They are looking for volunteers to collect items starting at 11 am. If you are interested in volunteering please contact President Tim Brown.

The Reading by Nine program will be collecting children's books on Wednesday, July 22nd, which will give you free entrance into the fair.

All You Can Eat Lobsterfest

Kimberly McKinney

Kimberly McKinney announced that the deadline to sell tickets has been extended to July 27, so please remind your friends. Kimberly advises that the sandcastle contest for children is scheduled at 3 pm with dinner service starting at 5 pm

Treasurer Sylvia Michler is surrounded by members (hopefully) purchasing tickets to the Lobsterfest with the help of Christina Holliday.

Every member is expected to sell 1 table or 20 general admission tickets. Remember that the quantity of people in attendance will make this event a success. All members are encouraged to send the Lobsterfest link to all their contacts.

Please start collecting donations for the silent auction!! Contact Laura Dietz if you have any questions.

Promoting Lobsterfest at Local Shopping Centers

Willis Longyear thanked Donna and Jon Cody, Clare and Elaine Taber, Laura Dietz, Patricia Bintliff, Caroline Babott, Reniero Francisco, John Goodlad, Don Norman, Tom Egan, and Gregg Fults for manning tables at various shopping centers to promote and sell tickets to the event by providing forms for purchasers to fill out with their credit card numbers.

End Polio Now – Angel Game

The Angels have donated 1,200 seats to the LA/Orange Districts for the Saturday, August 29th, game v. Oakland. If you are interested, the tickets are $30 for Terrace seats. Order forms are in this month's District newsletter or on line.

Fines

Fine Master Jeff Heilesen sported a sheriff's badge presented to him by Dick Cooling and because Dick spilled Caroline Babott's coffee, fined him $5. Tom Egan celebrated a birthday last week by participating in a memory study, which he forgot, so he paid $70. Carl Lachman's birthday is today so the membership sang "Happy Birthday" to him. Carl, who turned 39 today (for the 3rd year) is taking his son to the Dodger game, with a quest of taking his son to all the baseball stadiums in America! He paid $100.

Carl Lachman looking so young for being 39 for the 3rd time!!

Don Norman will celebrate his birthday on July 27th and will be celebrating in Santa Barbara. He wanted to bill his parents for his fine of $76 but collecting would be a problem since neither is still with us. Nice try. Visiting Rotarian Scott Jackson was not wearing a Rotary pin so he was fined $5 and instructed to pay his club and bring us a receipt. Donna Cody's ad in the Daily Pilot was recognized but because she arranged for a Lobsterfest ad on the following page, she only paid $25.

District Governor's Official Visit

District Governor Bret Gerdes

President Tim Brown introduced District Governor Bret Gerdes. Bret announced that at the first Presidents' meeting there were 120 in attendance. There are four things we get out of Rotary:

1. Rotary networking
2. Social
3. Opportunity to practice and learn leadership

4. Feel-good factor.

Governor Gerdes also informed us that the District 5320 online directory will make its debut sometime in July, after club secretaries have had a chance to bring their part up to date. There won't be a printed directory this Rotary year. Rotarians, however, will be able to go on line and make any changes and/or corrections. RI President John Kenney has set a membership goal of 50 per club. We need quantity of quality. The world needs Rotary and our Foundation. We give of our time, talent and treasury. Support and participation in the District events is encouraged from all Rotarians. The District Conference will be at Knot's Berry Farm scheduled for April 30 thru May 2, 2010. The International Convention next year is scheduled for Montreal. The Governor's parting words: "Get involved, stay involved, with your Club, and District. Feel Good. The future of not only Rotary but the world is in your hands".
