2011 Fundraiser

Cynthia Cowell

Cynthia Cowell reminded us that our annual fundraiser has been scheduled for Saturday, April 2, 2011 at the Newport Beach Library. Tom Giulioni reported that they have already obtained 100% contributions for the location, food, wine and invitations. Mark your calendars. It is now up to all members to get sponsorships and to sell tickets. The plan is to sell 400 tickets at $125 per ticket. Every member must sign up for a committee and should start promoting the event. There will be no silent auction so sponsorships and hopefully each member will donate a minimum of $500. The following committees have been established and are chaired by:

Sponsorships - Rich Hanki
 Marketing/PR - Dan Korpman

- Finance - Joe Bailey & Jim Valle
- Logistics - Tom Giulioni, Susan Fritts & Cynthia Cowell

How the Grand Jury Works

Cynthia Cowell introduced Dennis Evans, retired Foreman of the Grand Jury here today to speak to us on the functions of the Grand Jury.

Dennis Evans

A regular jury is an adjudicated body. The following is the process to selecting a Grand Jury: Applications submitted for grand jury service are reviewed by the Grand Jury Recruitment/ Selection Committee, comprised of Superior Court judges. Every effort is made to recruit both men and women from all socio-economic levels, ethnic and age groups. Applicants are judged on the knowledge, skills and abilities required for successful performance as a grand juror. This screening process identifies approximately 90 applicants for further consideration. Those applicants who appear to be qualified are invited to an interview before a member of the committee. Applicants who are found to be best qualified, interested and available to serve will be given a background check by the Orange County Sheriff-Coroner Department. Finalists for the list of potential grand jurors may not exceed 30 names. The law requires that potential grand jurors shall be selected from the five supervisorial districts in proportion to the population of those districts. The 30 persons selected will constitute the prospective grand jury panel and are summoned to appear in court where all names are placed in a lottery draw. The first 19 names chosen become the next Orange County Grand Jury. The remaining names are drawn to provide alternates. January 14th is the deadline to apply.
