What Happened to Ethics?

Larry Gassin

Cynthia Cowell introduced Larry Gassin, Co-Founder and CEO of Advanced Coaching Solutions. Mr. Gassin is here to speak on ethics – the power, the passion, the pull and persuasion of principled practices. He found his passion helping business leaders define and design their own brand of success and then achieve it. He has more than 20 years experience coaching. As founder and principal of Larry H. Gassin & Associates, accountants and consultants, he enjoyed occasions to successfully complete against national and regional firms for clients. He also has in-depth entrepreneurial experience as the President and CEO of an energy systems technology company he founded that has done business with commercial entities and homeowners across the nation. He speaks and trains in areas of leadership, maximum achievement, goal-getting, ethics, sales and customer service, and time leadership.

A book will be donated to the Newport Beach Library in the name of Larry Gassin.
