Vocational Service Project:

Patricia Bintliff

Patricia Bintliff reported that last Saturday was the first women’s workshop at the Salvation Army. There are eight (8) very special women in the program. John Hedlund, Paul Ingvaldsen and Bill Robbins were the coaches on Saturday and they all did a great job. She only needs two (2) coaches per workshop. The schedule for the success workshops at The Salvation Army, 1300 Lewis Street, Anaheim, at the Women’s Facility, is:

Saturday, Oct 8th 1:30 to 3:30 pm

International Foundation: Chairman John Hedlund reported that he is planning ahead to get every member to contribute a minimum of $100 a year so that the Club is a 100% Sustaining Paul Harris Club. The Foundation Dinner for the District is scheduled for Saturday, November 19th. Anyone wishing to attend should contact John or Cynthia Cowell. Willis Longyear explained the difference between RI Foundation and our Club Foundation. President Cynthia Cowell advised that it is not her intent to win awards, but to help change the world.

International Service: Chairman Kimberly McKinney reported that she has been asked by the District to be on the District International Committee. Congratulations.

Kimberly reported on the progress that has been made with the Mt Olive Academy school for Girls in Kenya, including, but not limited to, the new furniture, computers, etc that help makes it possible for the school to house and educate 60 girls.

Avenues of Service: Craig Kennedy spoke on all that our Club has actively participated very successfully in all 5 of the Avenues of Service.

Sea Base: Willis Longyear reported on the Sea Base being able to serve 1,500 children throughout the year because of the $4,000 our Club donates for their bus program. The bus program allows children from inland to go to the Sea Base. We provide them a window to the outside world.

Club Finances: President Cynthia Cowell reported that our Foundation account has over $132,000 at this time. On the Club side, however, there are outstanding dues and members need to bring them current.

Membership: President Cowell announced that Tom Giulioni has resigned and Reniero Francisco will take over as Membership chair. Reniero reported that they are looking into members who don't attend meetings and/or don't pay their dues. We are currently at 54 members and he feels we need to change the culture of our club.

Fundraiser: Carl Lachman reported on the fundraiser. Dan Korpman is heading sales and marketing; Jerry Barrone is in charge of fund raising; Jeff Heileson is in charge of providing a "good party and good food" and Don Norman is chairing the live and silent auction. Carl also reported that we are currently at the "Save the Date" phase. Next big push will be sponsorships and auctions items, and they are working on applying for grant money.

Fines and Happy Dollars

The secret greeter today was Dan Morris. Tom Birch paid $25 Happy Dollars for his birthday on Sept 27th. He also attended the opening day at the horse raises and turned a $12 bet into $1,600. Craig Kennedy went zip lining in Maui so he paid $25. Chuck Hirsch was very happy that Stanford beat UCLA. Jerry Barrone offered a sale on fines so Patricia Bintliff paid in advance for birthday on October 14th and only had to pay $25. Tom Jackson's birthday is on October 12th so he paid $50. Joel Miliband's birthday is also on the 12th so he paid $30, plus an additional $70 for his birthday trip to Southern Utah. Paul Ingvaldsen is happy to be among so many Libras. Jeff Heileson is going to attend the Lone Pine Film Festival so he paid $10. Tom Jackson quoted Will Rogers: "There are two ways to argue with a woman – neither works!"
