Fines and Happy Dollars

Fine Master Jerry Barrone announced that Clare Taber was our secret greeter today. John Gregg had a birthday on October 25th and because of Stanford's win over USC and their winning the National Championship the paid $200 happy dollars. Vigil Galeley will celebrate his birthday on November 22 and because he is so proud of USC, he paid $100. Joe Patrick will turn 40 on October 12th so he paid $100. Tammy McKennon was in Santa Barbara watching her daughter win "Best of the Tournament" in volleyball. She also ran into Christina Holliday and her daughter, who sends her regards.

Paul Ingvaldsen paid $10 happy dollars for his daughter's win in rowing. Jeff Heilesen's grandson turned 5 so he paid $25. Dick Cooling is looking for copies of the LA Time sports page with an article about his adopted grandson who will be on the US Volleyball team. He paid $1.

Success Day

Patricia Bintliff introduced the Salvation Army program participants and they told us their career interests: Molly Brown, building and construction, Christina Dumitru, warehousing, Naomi Malannla, solar energy, Maria Blanco, accounting, Laura Strange, fighting addictions, Christina Dyball, clothing and pattern construction, and Kristen Ulicne, landscape architect.

Next on the agenda was personal grooming services, including make up and haircuts, and personal shopping.

“Warehousing” said one lady. “Entrepreneur” said another, after which they went shopping for their job interview wardrobe at the facilities of “Working Wardrobes” offering upscale suits, dresses and shoes with golden accessories.

Costa Mesa Rotary Club on Wednesdays at 12:15 at the Ramada Inn and Suites, 1680 Superior Avenue, Costa Mesa.

The services provided gratis for these ladies is the result of charity of the most noble kind as we once again draw a picture on our daily page of life, this time appropriately on All Saint’s Day.

Any Club members desiring not to have their picture published in the newsletter should notify Caroline B. Babott, newsletter editor.

Each Lady got to pick 1 suit, 1 shirt, pants or dress, 2 blouses, 1 pair of shoes, 3 accessories and 1 purse.

An article about the meeting from Paul Ingvaldsen:

About 30 Rotarians, the joyful gathered with the undaunted, in Costa Mesa, where our weekly meeting was conducted Tuesday, November 1st. As the meeting progressed, Rotarians congratulated 7 ladies from the Anaheim Salvation Army Shelter and their supporters. The women are matriculating through a training program led by Rotarian Patricia Bintliff designed to prepare them for successful careers in their chosen fields.

After a delicious breakfast prepared for the guests, the ladies-all formerly homeless-rose with eyes sparkling at their introduction to announce the profession they had chosen to pursue.
