Hoag Blood Drive

Janna Mazzaresse of the Hoag Blood Donor Services was here today to focus on our Club blood drive on Tuesday, December 6th thru Friday December 9th at Hoag Health Center, 510 Superior Ave, Newport Beach from 8 am to 3:45 pm

Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, and 8 am to 6:45 pm Monday and Thursday. Blood usage has increased and they desperately need blood. You can sign up by email at donateblood@hoag.com. Bring your photo I.D., list of medications you are taking and no tattoos within the last 12 months. Your support and generosity will save lives.

Our Club meeting will be at the 520 building.

Club Christmas Party

President Cynthia Cowell announced that plans for the Club Christmas Party have been finalized. It will be on Friday, December 16th, at the Newport Beach Yacht Club. Open bar cocktails at 5:30 pm with a buffet dinner to follow. The cost is $50 per person. Parking will be at the parking lot at the Newport Beach Country Club on Pacific Coast Hwy next to Armstrong Gardens. A shuttle will take guests to the Yacht Club. Please make your checks payable to the Club.

District Foundation Dinner and Club Fundraiser

(By Paul Ingvaldsen)

Newport Beach Sunrise Rotary Club bought its first table of 10 for the Annual Foundation Dinner held at Old River Country Club in Los Alamitos, Saturday evening. In the biggest gathering ever held at the Country Club, hundreds of Rotarians interacted as a singer crooned love songs and old favorites near an open bar. Dinner began with awards and recognition for donors and progressed to a live auction.

The season of giving is upon us once again as we move into the holidays. Our Rotary Club has begun soliciting cash donations for the annual March fundraiser. To kick off this effort, club members are specifically asked to make an early effort to contact three possible donors outside of our organization who might consider contributing a charitable cash donation.

Carl Lachman suggests that we make appointments this week with three individuals who may be supportive of our fund raising efforts. Let's catch the holiday spirit and achieve our target number early. Our goal is to raise $50,000. Start with the "Save the Date" cards available on the back table at the next meeting. Take a look at the donation forms and other support material. Let's network to set up appointments and reach Carl's goal to encourage three outside donors to write checks. Happy Thanksgiving

Fines and Happy Dollars

Fine Master Jerry Barrone announced that Paul Ingvaldsen was our secret greeter today.

Jerry Barrone

John Hedlund paid $100 Happy Dollars for Iowa State's win. He reported that Virginia is still struggling and hopefully her operation will be scheduled after Thanksgiving. Virgil Galey paid $10 for USC's win. Chuck Hirsch, in honor of Stanford's win and for his birthday last week paid $45 and will pay the other half next week. Clare Taber paid $1 for Vermont High School's basketball team! Laura Dietz announced that she has obtained 1,000 mattresses for the Wounded Warriors. Since today was Virgil Galey's birthday, the members sang "Happy Birthday".

Mayor Mike Henn, City of Newport Beach

Mayor Mike Henn

President Cynthia Cowell introduced Mayor Mike Henn. Mr. Henn is serving his first year as Mayor, which ends in December.

He will then serve 3 years as City Councilman. Mayor Henn thanked Rotarians for what Rotary does for the community. He paid $10 Happy Dollars because he is happy to serve as Mayor. Mayor Henn spoke on the following topics:

1. His influence on next year's agenda – generation planning
2. Extension of the John Wayne Airport settlement agreement.
3. Revitalization of 5 projects including Lido Marina Village, Nautical Museum, Balboa Theater, Corona del Mar entry and the entry into Newport Beach

He also spoke about the Tidelands, harbor dredging, pension costs for the City, City restructuring, the 3 new parks and the balanced City budget. Mayor Henn then had a short Q&A session.

A book with be donated to the Newport Beach Public Library in the name of Mike Henn.
