Five Crowns Renovation

Jill introduced Ryan Wilson the Executive Chef for Lawry's Restaurants. He is the great grandson of a founder of the restaurant chain and has worked in their restaurants throughout the world. His new project is to renovate the Five Crowns section of the existing facility and introduced an expanded menu upon reopening. Work is scheduled to commence next month. The Five Crowns will close for about a month but the Side Door section will remain open and continue to host the Club for our breakfast meetings. Send any comments or suggestions to Rwilson@lawrys.com.

RYLA

Phil Reynolds stated the Club will send four students from Back Bay-Monte Vista- High School to the RYLA May camp this year.

Marines 1/1 to Afghanistan

Laura Dietz is raising funds to provide special affects for the 1200 members of the 1/1 Marines at Camp Pendleton on Thursday February 17th when they hold their pre deployment fete. She has some funds left over from the Christmas event but is short of the amount needed to fund this activity. Send your donation to: NBSR Foundation c/o Laura Dietz, 325 Cameo shores Rd., Corona del Mar 92625-3100.

Raffle

President Reniero announced to future raffle participants that 20 cards remain in the deck including the ace of spades. Each week the winner of that weeks raffle withdraws a card. The first to draw the ace of spades wins a dinner with President Reniero and his wife Cynthia. This week's winner was Caroline Babott but she drew the five of clubs so gets no dinner.

Rotary Valentine Party

Tammy McKennon announced that our annual Valentine Party will graciously be hosted by Dickson Shafter on Friday, February 11. Mexican food will be served and the cost will be $30 per person. She needs help to set up and for decorations. If you are available please contact her.

Quarterly Dues

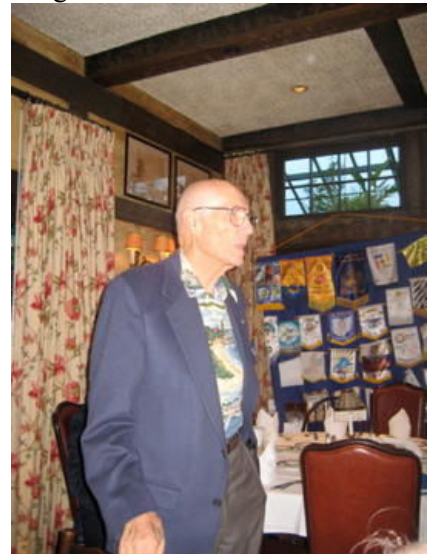

Dues for this quarter are payable. Send your checks to Joe Bailey.

Organizations Supported by the Foundation

The next Board meeting will determine the allocation of available funds to the organizations supported by the Club's Foundation. The amount available to disburse is approximately $20,000. Send donation request forms to President Reniero.

Fines and Happy Dollars

Fine Master, Jerry Barrone, announced the Silent Greeter was Dickson Shafer and Donna Cody did not shake his hand. Richard Cooling has a new great grandson, Ryan Scott Harrison, who arrived at 8 pounds 13 ounces. Dick donated $8. John Clark's car was side-swiped while parked in front of his home after last weeks meeting. He had $5 left after paying for the repairs. Bob Lind celebrated his 55th anniversary. He donated $100. John Goodlad is happy to be back and appreciates everyone's thoughts and assistance. He will donate a Paul Harris Fellowship in his oldest daughter's name.

April 2, 2011 Fundraiser

Cynthia Cowell

The Foundation's 2011 fundraiser is only nine weeks away. Put Saturday April 2, 2011 on your calendar. Cynthia Cowell, President Elect, gave an overview of the event and then called on subcommittee chairpersons to discuss their activities. The Donor Celebrity is the Library Literacy Program and all net proceeds go to the Rotary Foundation. The event is scheduled from 6:30-9:30 PM and the goal is to raise $50,000 for the Foundation. The cost of the location, wine and food have been donated. Heavy hors d'oeuvres will be served. There will be no formal dinner. The theme is "Passport to the World-Italy" and entertainment will be music, singing waiters dancing and computer games. Richard Hanki is handling acquisition of sponsorships and auction items. See him for forms to assist in getting sponsorships and auction items. There will only be a silent auction this year and it will be limited to five or ten items. Opportunity tickets will also be available.

Dan Korpman reported the goal was to get 400 people to attend and it is up to members to invite friends and contacts. The goal is to have members invite 4 or 5 others.

Invitations will be available next week. No community wide advertising is planned. The cost is $125 per ticket. Reserved tables of eight can be purchased for $1,000. Otherwise seating throughout the library will be available.

The dress is business casual and there will be the ability to register online
