2009 Vocational Service Update

Your Vocational Service Committee:
Patricia Bintliff, Tim Brown, Laura Dietz and Chuck Iverson

The Success Workshops continued on April 4, 2009. This workshop focused on the written job application. For our clients the written job application creates a number of challenges. Among these are appropriate references, lengthy gaps in employment and the question asking on whether or not there has been a felony conviction. Laura Dietz and I want to thank John Gregg, Chris Szechenyi for their outstanding contributions as coaches for our to our second workshop and helping our clients become more confident in facing these important issues raised by the job application.

Our Clients, again, come from a variety of backgrounds and vary in age. They all however have one thing in common and that is a poor decision or a series of poor decisions has interrupted their lives. With our help and that of the Salvation Army, they are are trying to redirect themselves. As happens sometimes, we lost Jason from our class this past week. He left the Salvation Army voluntarily. We wish him the best.
