Jim Nye will be our auctioneer Saturday night

Caroline Babott is still looking for Opportunity tickets stubs and money. Remember that the proceeds from ticket sales is 100% pure profit. If you have not turned in your money and stubs please bring them with you on Saturday.

Laura Dietz is making sure that those who have volunteered to help wrap silent auction baskets at her home know where and when to show up tonight.

District 5320 Angel Game & Tailgating

Jeff Heilesen is looking for members interested in attending the Angle game on Saturday, August 30th, District 5320 Rotarians are invited to gather in the parking lot of Angel Stadium to watch the Angels take on the Texas Rangers.

Jeff Heilesen

Prior to the game, at 3 pm, bring your barbeque grills, your lawn chairs, your club's own style of tailgate refreshments, and of course your club banners, and join others for fun prior to the game. The District Governor will judge which club throws the best tailgate party. If you are interested let Jeff Heilesen know so that plans can be made and tickets purchased. Field Box are $20 and Terrace Box are $17 and must be purchased in groups of 25 or more to get this discount.

Fines

Fine master John Hedlund reminded Gordon Bagne that he has an anniversary coming upon August 25th and asked him what he had planned. With a surprised look on the face Gordon said he certainly would have something special planned by Monday. He and Dolores will be celebrating 52 years so he paid $52. Reniero Francisco snitched on Gordon's recent trip to Russia so Gordon told us a little about the trip and in particular the changes in 8 years to St. Petersburg. Gordon added $48 to his fine. John then asked Reniero Francisco about how he and Cynthia celebrated their 21st anniversary on the 15th and extracted $21 out of Reniero. John then asked Tom Egan his plans for celebrating his anniversary on the 27th. Tom thanked John for reminding, wrote the date down so he wouldn't forget. Tom then told us about their recent trip to a foreign country – "Texas" where they attended their granddaughter's graduation from collage. Tom paid $30. Donna Cody will be celebrating a birthday on August 28th which she plans on celebrating by working all day. She paid $48.

Equal Opportunity & Diversity

Speaker Raid A. Faraj

Gordon Bagne introduced Raid A. Faraj, Senior Investigator/ Diversity Educator at the University of California, Irvine. UC Irvine is committed to excellence through diversity and to the goal of reflecting diversity in our faculty, student and staff populations, as well as our teaching, research and public service endeavors. The Office of Equal Opportunity & Diversity is responsible for the campus's compliance with federal and state laws and university policies and procedures regarding discrimination, retaliation and sexual harassment. promote and integrate the principles of equal opportunity, affirmative action, nondiscrimination and excellence through diversity using sexual harassment prevention and diversity trainings, complaint resolution, consultation on EEO/AA and diversity-related issues, as well as collaborations with other departments and organizations. The UCI ADVANCE Program carries out the campus's commitment to gender equity and diversity among faculty through a team of equity advisors who monitor recruitment activities, coordinate advising for career advancement, and counsel faculty regarding equity, including salary.

Partnership for Adaptation, Implementation & Dissemination is a National Science Foundation-funded program that assists senior administrators, deans and chairs in advancing gender equity and diversity among faculty. Supported by a three-year grant and operated in partnership with UCLA, UC Riverside, UC San Diego and UC Santa Barbara, the program features a leadership component - Leading through Diversity - which runs through January 2010.

The whole room is intently listening to Mr. Faraj
